SECTION: G.S.—

FILE No. 233-13

R e a d:-

D. O. No. 318 dated the 5th March 1913 from the Comptroller, submitting a copy of the report of Mr. H.N.Krishna Rao Assistant Comptroller, pointing out certain irregularities in the contingent expenditure of the Deputy Commissioner's Office Shimoga.

2. Correspondence ending with letter No. 791 dated 23rd July 1913 from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore submitting the results of his enquiry and suggesting how the persons responsible for the irregularities should be dealt with.

- - - - - - - - -

Order thereon:-No. 2136-7 LR 422-12-11 Dated Bangalore, 2nd September 1933

Mr. M. N. Krishna Rao's detailed report and the Revenue Commissioner's enquiries thereon have brought to light various irregularities in expenditure of the contingent grant in the Shimoga District Office. These are

(i) Utilization of contingent grant for objectionable expenditure and accounting for the same by means of spurious vouchers.

(ii) Using amounts drawn for a specific purpose for an entirely different one,

(iii) Mixing up of private and Government transactions in the same account.

(iv) Non-maintenance of stock accounts of furniture and other articles purchased out of the contingent amount and the total absence of any official record relating to such purchases.

(v) Non-adjustment for long periods of advances made from contingent and other allotments.

2. The Revenue Commissioner's report shows beyond a shadow of doubt that the acting Head Clerk Narasimhiengar and Accountant Ananthiah are primarily responsible for these irregularities. There is every reason to suspect that in some instances they were more than mere irregularities and that there has been temporary, if not permanent, misappropriation of Government money by these officials. The Revenue Commissioner has recommended the dismissal of Ananthiah from service. As regards Narasimhiengar, the Revenue Commissioner had first suggested his reduction by two steps, but he has subsequently proposed that as the official is superannuated and under orders of retirement from 3rd August, he may be given such other ap - -- punishment as Government may see fit to order. Government are of opinion that the cases of these officials call for exemplary punishment and accordingly direct that Ananthiah who is an official of about 11 years' service, be dismissed from service. As regards Narasimhiengar, in consideration of the long service of more than 32 years put in by him, Government consider that he will be sufficiently punished by a substantive reduction of the amount of pension and are accordingly pleased to direct that the pension to which he would be entitled under the rules be reduced by Rs10.

3. It is observed from the Revenue Commissioner's report (vide paras 14 and 15) that a sum of Rs98-4-0 had been advanced from the impress towards the value of certain articles said to have been purchased by Narasimhiengar and Ananthiah for their private use. The Revenue Commissioner is requested to have necessary action taken for the adjustment of these and other objectionable items of advance by prompt recovery from the parties concerned.

4. As regards the case of Dasarathiengar, who was allowed to draw pay for May 1912 both in the District Office and in the Hole Narsipur Munsiff's Court, the Deputy Commissioner may be asked to expedite his enquiry and report the final orders passed by him in the case, for the information of Government.

5. Government observe that in apportioning the responsibility for the irregularities noticed by the auditing officer, the District Sheristedar T. K. Lakshmana Iyer in whom the control of the cash transactions of the Deputy Commissioner's office is primarily ~~responsible~~ vested, cannot be altogether absolved from his share in it. The Revenue Commissioner is requested to call for his explanation in the matter and submit the same for the orders of Government with his opinion thereon.

6. The Deputy Commissioner, Mr. K. Srinivasa Rao, has made a frank admission that he did not go into the details of his office expenditure and that he placed reliance on his personal Assistant and the highly paid District Sheristedar. Government accept the conclusion of the Revenue Commissioner that Mr. Srinivasa Rao was not personally aware of the irregularities brought to light but they do not consider his explanation satisfactory. However, as Mr. Srinivasa Rao has retired after a long and satisfactory service, Government are of opinion that it is sufficient merely to record their regret that such irregularities should have occurred in an office under his immediate control.

The Revenue Commissioner has recommended the dismissal of Ananthiah from service. As regards Narasimhaiengar, the Revenue Commissioner had first suggested his reduction by two steps, but he has subsequently proposed that as the official is superannuated and under orders of retirement from 3rd August,he may be given such other punishmennt as Government may see fit to order. Government are of opinion that the cases of these officials call for exemplary punishment and a cordingly direct that Ananthia who is an official of about 11 year's service,be dismissed from service. As regards Narasimha Iyengar,in consideration of the long service of more than 32 years put in by him Government consider that he will be sufficiently punished by a substantive reduction of the amount of pension and are accordingly pleased to direct that the pension to which he would be entitled under the rules be reduced by Rs.10/-.
